1.3. RACES

1.3.1. Marathon / 42,195 meters

Starting Point: In front of the Town Hall Building, Foinikoudes Beach

Time: 7:00 a.m.

Description of Race:

The new race route of the Radisson Blu International Larnaka Marathon is flat and fast, passing by the main landmarks of the city of Larnaka. The perfect setting for runners to reach and break their PBs!

From there, runners head east, turning right at the end of Foinikoudes, continuing on the right side of the road until they reach the first turning point at the 5 km mark, before the roundabout by Larnaka Beach House.

Next, runners go along Larnaka-Dhekelia Avenue on the right side of the road, heading toward the Livadia roundabout. After a right turn and another 500 meters, they hit the second turning point, leading them towards Larnaca Harbour roundabout.

Heading into the city, runners pass through Makariou Avenue and Zinonos Kitieos, reaching the historic St. Lazarus Church, showcasing the charming city centre.

From St. Lazarus church, runners go through the Turkish Cypriot neighborhoods, ending up on Piale Pasa, one of Larnaka's scenic coastal roads.

From Piale Pasa runners head east and repeat the route up to the 28.5 km mark.

At this point, runners continue west along Artemidos Avenue, passing the famous Salt Lake and reaching the mosque of Hala Sultan Teke, which marks the third turning point.

The runners will then head towards Larnaka Airport roundabout and continue until they reach the final turning point of the race to return to the coastal avenue of Piale Pasa, pass the city's Medieval Castle and finish the race at Foinikoudes, in front of Larnaka Town Hall.

1.3.2. Half-Marathon Race / 21.097 meters

Starting Point: In front of the Town Hall Building, Foinikoudes Beach

Time: 7:15 a.m

Description of Race:

The Half Marathon race of the Radisson Blu Larnaka Internation Marathon features a flat and fast route, the perfect setting for runners to reach and break their PBs!

From there, runners head east, turning right at the end of Foinikoudes, continuing on the right side of the road until they reach the first turning point at the 5 km mark, before the roundabout by Larnaca Beach House.

Next, runners go along Larnaka-Dhekelia Avenue on the right side of the road, heading toward the Livadia roundabout. After a right turn and another 500 meters, they hit the second turning point, leading them towards Larnaca Harbour.

Heading into the city, runners pass through Makariou Avenue and Zinonos Kitieos, reaching the historic St. Lazarus Church, showcasing the charming city centre.

From St. Lazarus church, runners go through the Turkish Cypriot neighborhoods, ending up on Piale Pasa, one of Larnaka's scenic coastal roads.

From Piale Pasa, runners head west along Artemidos avenue, reaching the third turning point of the race after the Old Airport roundabout.

The runners then head towards the coastal avenue of Piale Pasa, pass by the Medieval castle, and finish the race at Foinikoudes, right in front of the Larnaka Town Hall.

NOTE: What is not explicitly mentioned in the paragraphs of the present notice is subject to the regulations of IAAF, CAAA and AIMS, while the Articles with all their Provisions, which govern the Public Road Events are automatically and universally enforced.

Particular attention must be paid in compliance to the Rules of Articles 144, 145 & 240, according to which, among other rules, specific actions are seen as aid and are consequently NOT ALLOWED.

Enforced Automatically and Universally are the provisions of:

Article 144-Aid to Athletes

Article 145-Disqualification of Competitor

Article 240- Road Races on Public Road

Article 144.(2)Athlete- a contestant who gives or receives assistance during a race will receive a warning from the Judge or Registrar and will be informed that if repeated, they will be disqualified from the particular race. If an Athlete is disqualified from a race all of his performance in the race up to that moment, will be considered invalid.

Note: In cases under Article 144.3(a)-"pacing" disqualification can be done without warning.

Article 144.3(a) Pacing guidance is not permitted by people who do not participate in the same race, from athletes who are missing one round or are about to be overlapped by one round or by any kind of mechanic device guided or not by a person (except those that are allowed according to Article 144.4(d)).

Article 240.8(e) The athlete –contestant who accepts or gets himself a refreshment or water from a point other than the official stations, except where this is given for medical reasons by the judges of the event or under their supervision, or gets a drink from another athlete or another person, should, if this is their first misconduct, receive a warning from the Judge-Registrar usually with the display of a yellow card. If they resume for a second time to the same misconduct, then the Judge/Registrar will disqualify the athlete-competitor by showing him a red card or flag. In this case the athlete leaves the race immediately
